

Everyone's favourite vicar is arriving at Chelmer on 19 July ...

By Richard Curtis and Paul Mayhew-Archer
Tiger Aspect Productions

SEASON SOLD OUT ... NO TICKETS REMAINING

WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT AND BLESSINGS

The Arrival -- When Reverend Pottle, the 102-year-old vicar of St Barnabas' Dibley, dies suddenly, the villagers eagerly await his replacement. To their shock, it turns out to be a woman. However, all the villagers grow to love their new vicar - except David Horton.

Radio Dibley - "Radio Dibley" goes live for one week, with Geraldine doing a "Brain of Dibley" competition and Owen commenting on horse gelding. Alice tries to impress her future father-in-law.

A THEATRE RESTAURANT

Bookings essential for catering purposes.
Saturday and Sundays at 6pm

Tickets $45 include dinner & show. ☐☐ Bookings can be made on-line

Licensed bar.

Praying at the Chelmer Community Centre,

Cnr Queenscroft & Halsbury Streets, Chelmer

