

The Australian (world even!) premiere of two new one act plays by the award winning Brisbane author Deb Chalmers

Will open on Saturday 8 November at 8pm

and performs 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, 23, 28 and 29 November

Fridays & Saturdays at 8pm, Sunday 16th at 6pm, Sunday 23rd at 2pm

On-line bookings open now

Directed by Deb Chalmers & Dale Murison

Eric Scott's review is here ...

Money from Heaven

Due to an unforeseen twist of events, Frankie now finds himself balance precariously on the border between heaven and hell. The right word from the right person will make all the difference. The only problem is how to convince Joe, his long-time friend that he is the right person and convincing him of what the "right word" is.

The Innkeeper, the Writer, the Pirate and the Detective (a radio play)

It seems to simple when Barbara Cartland did it - dark night plus innocent heroine plus dastardly pirate equals novel. But for Miriam, the task is far from easy. Tucked away in a shall country B&B trying to finish her book, a local murder throws detectives, accountants and friendly innkeepers into the mix and reality and fiction begin to blur. Where is Agatha Christie when you need her??