

"... the script contains many witty episodes .. and make for an enjoyable and original show ... While ... Ratbags won't be cleaning up at the Tony awards for best musical any time soon, it is nevertheless an entertaining production that audiences young and old can enjoy for a pleasant night out." Simon Massey di Vallazza (Stagediary) 24 July 2004

"You can't say the CTG don't have variety in their annual program ... this time going for very non-classic fun in Ratbags ... Susan O'Toole did a fantastic job to get a cast of 28, many playing multiple roles, ready for a spirited opening night performance ... [they] worked hard to make the world premiere of the play succeed more than it deserved" Eric Scott (absolutetheatre.com.au) 30 July 2004
